Dear Company and Management:

I write these lines to you to set forth my resignation from my job. These 3 years in your company have been very enriching for me and for that reason I will always be grateful for the trust you placed in me when you hired me.

The reason for my resignation is that I have found a job with similar characteristics, but in my place of residence, so I can be closer to my family, which is the most important thing I have.

Second reason is because of the lack of benefits that you can provide when registering your vehicle with the company as opposed to the chains in the United States.

With no other thoughts, I remain at your disposition for any questions.

Sincerely yours:

Kevin Omar Matias Roselló
